The Board of Governors consists of seven members. Five Governors, including the Chair, are appointed by Benchers of the Law Society of Newfoundland and Labrador and two by the Minister of Justice and Public Safety.

The first meeting of the Board of Governors was held on February 26, 1979, when the work began to allow for the proclamation of Part IV of the Law Society Act on February 1, 1980.

The Law Foundation provides grants to advance public understanding of the law and access to legal services. Its objects for funding are legal education, legal research, law reform, legal aid, legal referral service, law libraries and law scholarships.

The Law Foundation of Newfoundland and Labrador is heritage partner for the History of Law and the Courts, www.heritage.nf.ca on the Newfoundland and Labrador Heritage Web Site at Memorial University. This public history project presents the Province's rich heritage in a format that combines text, graphics, audio and video. Six major areas, involving heritage partners, are featured: Natural Environment, Aboriginal Peoples, Exploration and Settlement, Government and Politics, Society, Economy and Culture, and the Arts. In addition to this cultural and academic knowledgebase being available on the Internet to university students and the general public, as a further educational resource high school students are able to access high school curriculum-specific modules on the law and constitutional issues.

LAW FOUNDATION OF NEWFOUNDLAND AND LABRADOR

ANNUAL REPORT 2017

The Law Foundation of Newfoundland and Labrador approved funding totalling $17,159,068. for the period 1980 to 2017 inclusive, on a year by year basis, to over fifty separate recipients, with several of these receiving a number of grants for different projects, for the following objects:

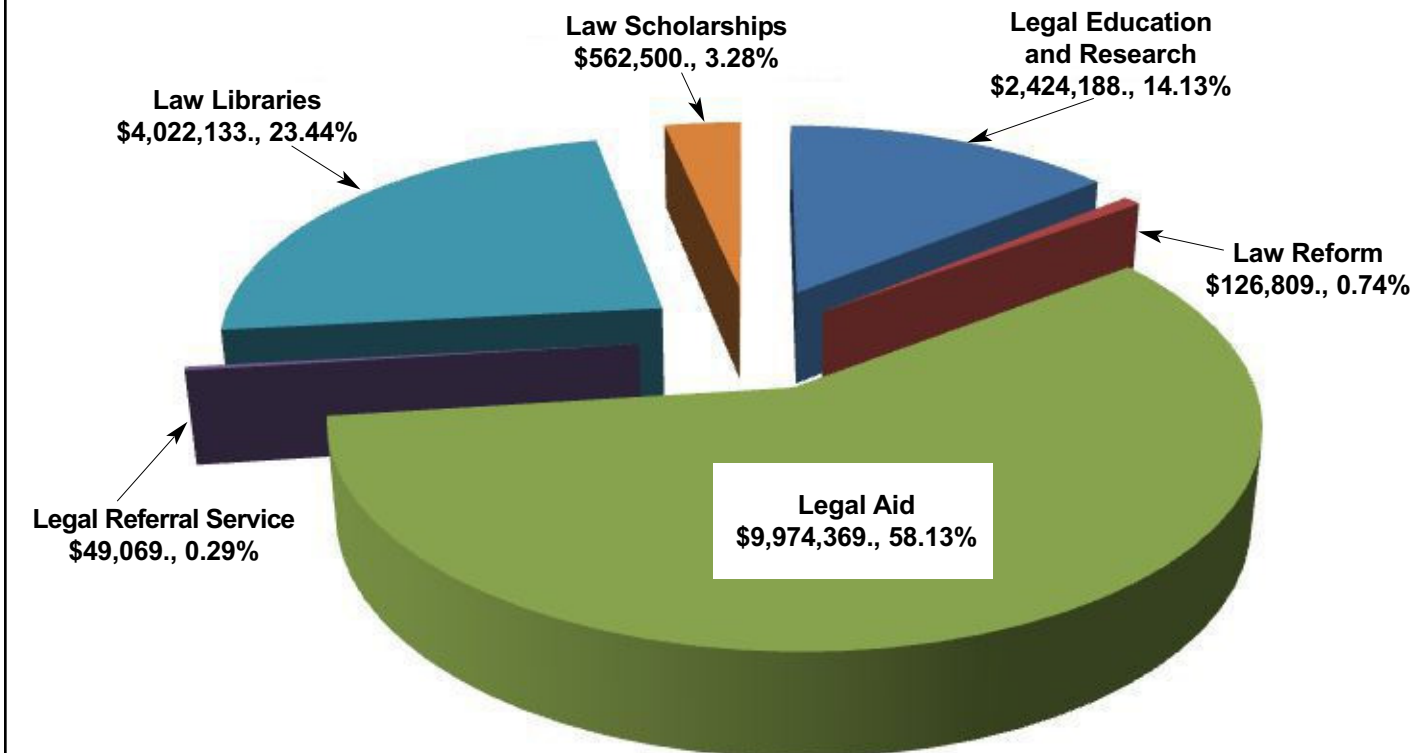

(a) legal education and legal research	14.13%	$ 2,424,188.
(b) law reform	0.74%	126,809.
(c) legal aid	58.13%	9,974,369.
(d) legal referral service	0.29%	49,069.
(e) law libraries	23.44%	4,022,133.
(f) law scholarships	3.28%	562,500.
	100.00%	$ 17,159,068.

The Law Foundation in 2017 had IOLTA revenues of $494,659 (2.90% average annual composite prime – aacp), an increase of $80,698 from 2016 revenues of $413,961 (2.70% aacp).

The Foundation maintains a separate Law School Scholarships Fund, with $300,000 in capital (increased by $50,000 in both 2009 and 2008). The Law School Scholarships Selection Committee annually awards up to three entrance scholarships valued at $5,000 each. In 2016, the Board adopted the policy to place the total Unclaimed Trust Funds received annually (first and second annual payments of $21,362 and $30,960 received in January, 2016 and 2017 respectively) from the Law Society, pursuant to Section 70.1, Law Society Act, 1999, into the Law Foundation Scholarships Fund to be used for payment of Scholarships.

Allocation of $17.1 M in Funds from 1980-2017

Prime was 2.70% at January 1, 2017, increasing to 2.95% in July, and 3.20% in September where it remained at December 31, 2017. Prime increased to 3.45% in January, 2018 where it remains through April.

The Foundation's equity position at December 31, 2017, its fiscal year end, was $632,294 comprising the Reserve Account of $632,294 and $NIL in undistributed revenue.

With respect to the Reserve Account, it is the policy of the Foundation to maintain:

- a) $432,294 for grants stabilization (increased by $4,344 in 2017 and reduced by $29,363 in 2016, $37,617 in 2015 and $5,070 in 2014 from ceiling of $500,000); and,
- b) $200,000 for administration.

Pursuant to the Law Society Act, 1999, the Board must contribute two-thirds (increased by government from one-third effective January 1, 1992) of the net IOLTA revenues received in each calendar year directly to the Newfoundland and Labrador Legal Aid Commission.

The Foundation's two-thirds contribution to the Legal Aid Commission for calendar year 2017 was $190,085 compared to $137,086 for calendar year 2016. Historically, the highest and lowest two-thirds contributions were $1,125,949 and $68,960 for calendar years 2007 and 1997 respectively.

The Board of Governors of the Law Foundation had advised the Government that it is imperative to reallocate the Foundation's annual legislated two-thirds net revenue contribution to the Newfoundland and Labrador Legal Aid Commission and increase the funds available to the Foundation to benefit existing core grantees, and for prior and new applicants and worthy organizations to receive their fair share of Law Foundation revenue under the other five legislated objects of the Foundation.

The Provincial Government commissioned an external review of legal aid. The Report entitled "External Review of Legal Aid in Newfoundland and Labrador" by John F. Roil, Q.C. under Section 5,

"Recommendations on Changes to Legal Aid Services", "(e) Sources of Funding", p. 110 states, "The Law Foundation: It is recommended that Government should allow the Law Foundation to retain $300,000 of its net annual resources to apply to its other worthwhile and mandated objectives, after which the 2/3 contribution to the Commission from the Foundation should apply".

The report is available online at www.justice.gov.nl.ca/just/publications/pdf/legal_aid_review_march2014.pdf.

Government has advised that, given the current fiscal position of the Province, Government will keep at the forefront of the budgetary process the recommendation in the 2013 Report by John F. Roil, Q.C., Reviewer relating to the funding of Legal Aid, as it affects the Foundation, approved by the Provincial Government, for future inclusion in proposed legislation.

The following Chart, Figure 1 shows annual and total shares of Law Foundation net revenue from 1980 to 2017, inclusive, by the Newfoundland and Labrador Legal Aid Commission and Law Foundation.

The Foundation assumes that lawyers who receive or hold funds in trust for, or on account of, clients comply strictly with section 69 of the Law Society Act, 1999, and the Uniform Trust Account Rules of the Law Society. This compliance requires that lawyers credited with interest earned on funds held in lawyers' mixed trust accounts (IOLTA) shall remit it to the Foundation. The lawyers' mixed trust accounts are not the property of, nor administered by, the Foundation. The Foundation is, therefore, unable to determine the amount of IOLTA until such time as it is received from each individual financial institution, upon the lawyers' filed instructions. IOLTA is recorded by the Foundation upon receipt of the funds.

IOLTA is calculated by financial institutions based on interest rates and terms negotiated by the Foundation with the individual financial institutions. When the Law Foundation was established in February, 1980, interest was paid by financial institutions on the minimum monthly balance in lawyers' trust accounts. Effective in 1987, the interest became paid on the average monthly credit balance. The rates may differ between financial institutions and within the same financial institution nationally. A number of financial institutions, as well, waive basic service charges. Certified cheque and draft charges are charged against the lawyer's general account.

IOLTA currently paid by financial institutions in the Province is generally calculated on monthly average prime minus an agreed upon percentage, historically 5%, then 4%, and, until recent years, 3% at a number of financial institutions, on the average monthly credit balance. In 2009, with the collapse in prime to 2.25%, the financial institutions, following negotiations with the Foundation, provided a floor rate of 0.25% or a revised prime minus x% calculation, which varies between financial institutions, with the best at prime minus 2%.

The prime rate, together with the total amount of funds held in lawyers' mixed trust accounts across the Province, determine Law Foundation revenues in 2018.

While the total amount of funds held in lawyers' mixed trust accounts across the Province has steadily risen since the Law Foundation was established in 1980 and future increases in prime should increase Law Foundation IOLTA revenue, increases in prime may also see financial institutions review their IOLTA rates.

LAW SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIPS

Reginald H. Brown, Q.C., Memorial Scholarship

The Law Foundation of Newfoundland and Labrador in 2009 contributed $20,000 to the Memorial Scholarship Fund.

The Reginald H. Brown, Q.C., Memorial Scholarship was established at Memorial University of Newfoundland in memory of Reginald H. Brown, K.St.J., Q.C., through lead donations by his widow, Pamela J. Brown, and his colleagues at his law firm, Cox & Palmer. Mr. Brown was managing partner of this Atlantic Canadian law firm, established only two weeks before his death in early 2007. He served as President of the Law Society in 1995. Donations came from members of the legal community and others, to recognize his many contributions to the legal profession, his family and the community generally. The Scholarship is awarded at Spring Convocation to a student graduating from any area of study and accepted at a law school. Selection is made on the basis of academic excellence and demonstrated leadership qualities. The Scholarship is awarded annually by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards.

The 2017/2018 Reginald H. Brown, Q.C. Memorial Scholarship in the amount of $4,647 was awarded to Mitchel Fleming.

The Hon. John C. Crosbie Weldon Tradition Scholarship in Law, Schulich School of Law, Dalhousie University

In 2009 the Board of Governors of the Law Foundation of Newfoundland and Labrador contributed $50,000 to the Newfoundland and Labrador Scholarship in Law Fund.

The Newfoundland and Labrador Scholarship in Law was established on the occasion of the 125th Anniversary of Dalhousie Law School in 2008 in recognition of its strong relationship with this Province. This one-time contribution to this scholarship endowment fund, created by donations from Dalhousie Law alumni and others, will provide one or more renewable scholarships, which in time will be in the amount of $10,000.00 or greater as further donations are made, to students from Newfoundland and Labrador who have demonstrated academic excellence. In early 2012, the Scholarship was renamed The Hon. John C. Crosbie Weldon Tradition Scholarship in Law and a demonstration of 'selfless public service' was added to the criteria.

The Hon. John C. Crosbie Weldon Tradition Scholarship in Law in the amount of $10,000 in 2017/2018 was awarded to Alexander C. Jessome of Conception Bay South.

THE LAW FOUNDATION OF NEWFOUNDLAND AND LABRADOR

CENTENNIAL LAW SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIPS

In honour of the 100th Anniversary of the Faculty of Law, University of New Brunswick in 1992, the Law Foundation of Newfoundland and Labrador provided a $50,000 grant to the Heritage Campaign establishing a Scholarships Fund to award two scholarships for students enrolled in the Faculty of Law who are residents of the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador.

One scholarship is awarded to an upper year student based on a combination of financial need and demonstrated academic ability in the JD program Faculty of Law.

Kalli Fraize of St. John's received the Law Foundation Centennial Scholarship of $1,250 in the first semester 2016/2017.

The other scholarship is awarded on the basis of academic excellence to a student entering first year.

Erica Chestnut of St. John's received the Law Foundation Centennial Entrance Scholarship of $1,250 in the first semester 2017/2018.

The scholarships are awarded annually by the Scholarships Committee, Faculty of Law. The Law Foundation of Newfoundland and Labrador is advised when the awards have been made.

In 1986, the Law Foundation of Newfoundland and Labrador provided a $50,000 grant to Dalhousie University, as part of the Campaign for Dalhousie, following the August 16, 1985 fire, for the reestablishment of the Dalhousie law library.

THE LAW FOUNDATION OF NEWFOUNDLAND AND LABRADOR

2017/2018 LAW SCHOOL ENTRANCE SCHOLARSHIPS

The Law Foundation of Newfoundland and Labrador established funding for annual Law School Entrance Scholarships in 1984, in honour of the incorporation of the Law Society in 1834. The Scholarships, valued at $5,000. each, are awarded to residents of the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador on the basis of academic excellence and are tenable for first year studies at any Canadian Law School. The Scholarships Fund is separate from and in addition to the above stated equity position of the Foundation.

The Board of Governors is advised by the Law School Scholarships Selection Committee when the awards have been made. The recipients of the Law

Foundation 2017/2018 Law School Entrance Scholarships and their law schools are: Alexander Jessome, Conception Bay South, Schulich School of Law, Dalhousie University, Marc Lewis, Mount Pearl, Schulich School of Law, Dalhousie University, and Adam Quirk, Mount Pearl, University of Toronto, Faculty of Law.

In May 2009, Governors increased the Scholarships Fund capital from $250,000 to $300,000. The Board reinstated the awarding of up to three, increased from two, $5,000 entrance scholarships, provided from investment income. Pursuant to standing Board approval, in 2015 the annual transfer from Law

The Law Foundation of Newfoundland and Labrador annually offers up to seven Legal Research Awards valued at $750. each to students at Memorial University. The Awards are for outstanding research papers on one or more legal issues, or topics treated in a legal context, in a 2000 level course or beyond in any discipline at the undergraduate level and in any graduate course for students at the graduate level. A first year course is not eligible, with the sole exception of LWSO 1000: Law, Democracy and Social Justice. Preference will be given for one of the seven awards to an undergraduate student in their first year of studies, who is currently enrolled in, or has completed, the first year introductory course LWSO 1000 at the time their paper in this course is submitted for consideration.

The papers, submitted by and with endorsement of course professor or lecturer, are judged initially by the Dean, Director, or Department Head who makes a recommendation to the Selection Committee for the Awards. The Selection Committee comprises appointees of Memorial University and the Law

Foundation. In the case of undergraduates the Awards are made by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards. In the case of graduates the Awards are made by the Dean, School of Graduate Studies. In both cases they act upon the recommendation of the Selection Committee. An additional $750 is provided annually by the Law Foundation to Queen Elizabeth II Library for the purchase of research materials and resources. Awards total $6,000 annually.

The successful candidates in the twenty-first annual 2016/2017 Competition, covering the three semesters Spring/Summer and Fall, 2016, and Winter, 2017, are (in alphabetical order by Department):

NOTE: 'Article X - Reports by the Board' of the by-laws of the Law Foundation provide that the "Board... shall present an annual report to the (Law) Society at the annual meeting of the Society on June 8, 2018."

The Annual Meeting of the Board of Governors of the Law Foundation was held on May 28, 2018. The Board approved a total grant of $28,200. to the Law Society for law libraries for January 1 – December 31, 2018, with distribution for maintenance of holdings, including electronic licenses:

St. John's	$20,000.
Gander	$1,700.
and WestCoast	$6,500.

Other applicants are being advised of the results of their grant applications.

Law Libraries

The Law Society's Library in St. John's provides an excellent collection of legal texts, journals and electronic resources for the use of its members and delivers high quality reference services to members of the legal community (judges, lawyers and law students), public and libraries throughout the Province.

In 2017, the Foundation provided a total grant of $28,200. to Law Society for law libraries, St. John's, Gander and West Coast.

Since the proclamation of 'Part IV - Law Foundation' of the Law Society Act on February 1, 1980, to December 31, 2017, the Law Foundation has provided $3,062,304. in funding to the Law Society for Law Library, St. John's for electronic licences, website and enhancement, and book acquisitions.

In 1992, when the Law Library vacated the Court House in St. John's, the Board of Governors provided the Law Society with $100,000. in the Reserve Account for the establishment of the Law Library at its then location in Atlantic Place. The Law Library, Law Society is now located at 196-198 Water Street, St. John's.

The West Coast Law Library serves as the focal point of legal research and information for the practicing Bar and Judiciary on the West Coast of the Province. This facility has been jointly funded by the Law Society of Newfoundland and Labrador (via a grant from the Foundation) and the Provincial Department of Justice and Public Safety since its inception in 1983. Since then to December 31, 2017, the Foundation has provided $565,453. in funding for book acquisitions.

Since the establishment of the jointly funded Gander Law Library in 1994 to December 31, 2017, the Foundation has provided $154,376. in funding for book acquisitions.

PLIAN

The Public Legal Information Association of Newfoundland and Labrador (PLIAN) is a non-profit organization which relies on volunteers, core funding from the Law Foundation and the Federal Department of Justice, and in-kind support from the Provincial Government.

PLIAN is the Newfoundland and Labrador component of Public Legal Education Association of Canada (PLEAC). The Provincial Department of Justice has designated PLIAN as the current, sole designated public legal education and information (PLEI) service provider for Newfoundland and Labrador.

PLIAN receives project funding from the both Federal and Provincial Governments.

The Foundation's annual contribution has allowed PLIAN to continue to provide core operations to the people of Newfoundland and Labrador, host its website, provide its Lawyer Referral Service, Legal Information Telephone Line, Community Information Sessions, school presentations and publications, as well as assist an umbrella group of service providers from which the public directly benefits.

PLIAN provides public legal education and information services with the intent of increasing access to justice. PLIAN offers legal information sessions via webinar, enhancing its ability to reach remote parts of the island and Labrador.

Since PLIAN's establishment in the Province in 1984, to December 31, 2017, the Association has received annual core funding totaling $1,224,000. from the Law Foundation.

Newfoundland and Labrador Legal Aid Commission

Legal Aid operates under the Legal Aid Act, and provides a range of legal services to low income individuals in the areas of family and criminal law. Legal Aid counsel represent eligible residents of the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador charged with offences under the Criminal Code, other federal statutes and provincial statutes, and to persons with family disputes or other civil matters. Duty Counsel services are provided to non-residents, and legal counsel may be appointed for non-residents either through the legal aid plan of the province in which they reside or this Province's legal aid program.

Legal Aid is funded by the Federal and Provincial Governments and by the Law Foundation of Newfoundland and Labrador.

Since Government, effective January 1, 1983, added Legal Aid as an object to receive Law Foundation funding by legislative amendment of the Law Society Act, the Law Foundation, to December 31, 2017, has provided $9,974,369. in funding to the Newfoundland and Labrador Legal Aid Commission.
